Mas logo os ratos passaram a se alimentar daqueles detritos. Das casas, não paravam de sair pequenos roedores, vermes e diversas espécies de parasitas.

Only a rat managed to escape. Such words angered the mayor. "Mil florinesâ sÂ¡!?" said the mayor. I imagined having at hand all the best bites; it seemed to me to have a voice that invited me to eat two carrillos, to pray how much I wanted, to spend the night and to give in an eternal banquet, and that I was sweetly incited, saying, "Go on, take thee away!" When I regained the notion of reality I was in the river and about to drown myself as others. Then the murmur turned into noise and eventually it grew to become something roaring. "The one who calls forward!" the mayor spoke, with a trembling voice and dominating his terror. How exalted were they all! There was no way to calm the souls of those gathered there. The man wanted to hide his lack of formality by the force of shouting, as it always happens with those who work this way. The life in Hamelân was becoming unbearable!â sâ!But there was a day when the people were sick of this situation. It was a very strong rat that was born against the current and could reach the other shore. Do whatever you like, and blow the flute until you scramble! The flautist turned around and left the square. But, behold, the fluteist began to climb the mountain skirt, the lands were cracked and a wide and wonderful gateway opened. It also prohibited any host or month that in such street it was installed to profanar with parties or you will be able to raise the solemnity of the site. In addition, the mayor ordered that anyone who dared to play in Hamelân a flute or a drum, lose his occupation forever. - So, if I was so captivating you, why didn't you follow him? Last year I delivered the inhabitants of an English village, a monstrous invasion of murcians, and an Asian city I brought a plague of mosquitoes that kept them all mad by bites. We're not going to bargain for you.Of wine to celebrate what happened and also we will give you some money to fill your bag. And then enter the room the most strange character that can be imagined. Even the horses are extraordinary, they are born with wings of âgeguila. -I would have happened to all of you. His bearer was a tall, thin and sharp blue eyes, small as a pin heads. Once he there it was what happened. After him, he continued, every time more and more hard, the small troop. He took the flute and began to blow it, at the same time as guia â ± aba his greenish blue eyes. They did not think of anything other than to continue with their eyes, that is, to contemplate with mute stupidity, the joyful crowd that went after the flutist. A murmur was woke up in Hamelâjân. And, of course, they did not return to Hamelâjân. He would tear off the three of the flute notes. I also promised me to promise them the flutist with his music if he followed him, but I couldn't. At the door of the municipal council a slight resiquietoe sounded. Such a route caused hope to lift the oppressed breasts of the parents. What do you know what was happening? There the sparrows shine with more beautiful colors than those of our real turkeys. Dogs run more than the gamos from here. It seemed like any powerful and mysterious hand had suddenly excavated a huge cave. His face was smooth, without mustaches or beards; His lips contracted in a smile that directed to each other, as if he was among great friends. In addition, with the plague we have suffered many pâfâ © redidasâ € â € â! We are going, let's go â € Â! Take fifty. A whisper that soon looked like an uproar and that was produced by cheerful groups that rushed into the flutist, running over in his hurry. What a pact with you? -They came. He seemed to all the people of Hamelâ ân as if he had produced a whole ej â igito that woke up for a while. Salage a At the moment there was a rumor. His companions also declared that such a thing was not true. And as chickens in a great galliner, when they see the one who brings them their ration of barley, so they ran out of houses and palaces, all the children, all the boys and the young girls who inhabited them, with their pink cheeks and their golden curls, their sparkling eyes and their teeth similar to pearls. Parents, mothers, young men and cousins, with their stiff tails and their pungent mustaches. The hair fell into her lace and was of a light yellow, in contrast to the skin of the face that appeared coarse, blackened by the inclement of time. - she exclaimed with a fine astonishment the first authority of Hamelin, making a script to her councillors. The flautist, as he listened to the mayor's words, was putting a very serious face. The stranger advanced with great sympathies and said, "Please forgive me, sirs, that I have dared to interrupt his important meeting, but I have come to help you. When they became convinced that they lost time and that the flutist and the children had left forever, how much pain did the people experience! How many laments and tears! And all for not fulfilling the established covenant! To all remember what happened, the place where they saw the children disappear was held by Calle del Flautista MÂ¡gico. It was as if they offered all the treats that charmed a rat. Fifty thousand! And so did his companions of corporation, who had been surrounding him while he was in charge. Now, if the book of concern that sexual abuse would give me a thousand guilders? That's why I get my job. He suddenly stopped. He was lame and couldn't accompany the others in their dances and cumshots. The flautist continued to speak like this: -Be aware, however, that I am a poor man. Mayor and councillors contemplated him scoops, passed at his high figure and captivated, at the same time, by his strambotic appeal. - Don't talk nonsense, Mayor! - he exclaimed. They were snatchers, they loved the one who heard them. With women the thing was worse. Ah!, and besides... they put the snouts in all the meals, they sniffed in the buckets of the stewards that were preparing the cooks, they sprayed the people's dominguera clothes, practiced holes in the flour coasts and in the barrels of salted sardines and even pretended to climbs through the broad skirts of the charlatans women they still imagine me in the square. Poor city of Hamelin, Cara paid for his greed! The mayor sent people everywhere in order to offer the flautist silver and gold to fill his pockets, in exchange for the children to return. The flautist interrupted his orders to the notice: - cryo, Mr. Mayor, that has come the time to give me a thousand guilders. He wore a fine smile on his lips, for he was sure of the great power that he slept in the soul of his magical instrument. - asked his amazing father. In addition, tiredness will cause you to lose the flute and our children to stop following it. "God set us up!" said the mayor, full of panic. Until, suddenly, when he returned his head, he met face to face with the magic flute, whose arrogant and strange figure stood out in the Hamelin square-market. - What do you got? ed abrupt al ed odiuges atsitualf le "ÂArtenep ÂÁlla roP ?edneitne es om"ÂAC¿ÂÂ- ?adaeroloc apac al ed odnubgav etnajemes a ragap ne abasnep n©ÂÁiuQ¿ÂÁÁ .liv"ÂÁmni ©ÂÁAdeuq em y acis"ÂAm al "ÂAseC- ?nÂÁlemaH ed edlacla le yos euq sadivlo eT¿ÂÁ ?odÂÁerc sah et ©ÂÁAuQ¿ÂÁ .ohcefsitas y onafu yum ,edlacla le odnalbah abatse ÂÁSa !satar sal ed ortsar ronem le edeue on euq sodot ertne nerucorp y seli±ÂÁAbala y soretniprac a nemal¿ÂÁ !sadartne sal ogeul nerreic y satar sal ed sodin sol ne neugruT¿ÂÁ !samay y solap neugsb¿ÂÁÁ !somaV¿ÂÁÁ -sonicev sol a senedr"ÂÁ odnad etej nu aÂÁcerap ,narartsarra et euq aÂÁmet on ay euq ,edlacla IE .nÂÁlemaH ed so±ÂÁAn solleuqa odidrep naÂÁbah es om"ÂAc nesadrocer y eseciconic al odnum le odot euq arap aiselgi al ed lanatnev nary le ne n©ÂÁÁibat noratnip al y amuloc anu ne airotsh al adabary euf ogeul ,otelpmoc rop esodn¿ÂÁGoha ,sodot odneyac noreuf ednod ne ,oÂÁr la satar sal noragell odnalbah odnalab ÂÁSa Y ,rotucloretni us a o±ÂÁAp le odnartsom ,edlacla le "ÂÁlita- ,saton sert "ÂÁAcas euq led ,otnemurtsni us ed ±ÂÁAc adiz"ÂÁAurb y agral al sobal sol a "ÂÁwell es seocnetne y ojabo ellac anu rop radna a "ÂÁazepmE ,agalp alleuga abgoha es om"ÂAc ,sojo soiporp sortseun noc ,otshiv someh ÂÁalla y ,oÂÁr led allio al a ermpois somajabart sortoson euq atneuc ne yum neT ,otheimatnuYA la etnerf esragergnoc a noreuf ,asam ne ,sodot Y ?oy¿ÂÁÁ- !olalpm"ÂÁAc¿ÂÁÁ ,ogimnoc otcap nu ozih ,abatse omoc euq laugi a±ÂÁAatnom al odnadeuq sojo ed rarrac y rirba nu ne "ÂÁAicerapased atreup acits¿ÂÁAtnaf al ,odartne obuh solle ed omitp"ÂÁÁ le euq ÂÁSa Y ,arreit al erbos narroc o eria le rop naleuv is euq ,auga le ne nadan is euq oleus le erbos nartsarra es is ad omsim oL ,senofnidrog sol euq sohuccalf serodeor sol laugi ;sotiuqhc senotar sol euq sednary satar sal omsim oL .!ÂÁalla s¿ÂÁÁm ed sol naÂÁAgixe- !n"ÂÁÁiculus anu ned son otneimatnuYA led sol ÂÁAeuQ¿ÂÁÁ- atar anu ed reor le eyo es euq ecerap .satar rilas a norazepme sasac sal sadot ed euq seuP ?satar sal However, the mayor left his country and the same passed to the councillors when he saw that the music doctor was admitted to the high street of the Râo. And sad and cariaconcido Loon. "I could not, for my sick leg," the child hurt. -He said that it would take everyone to a happy land, near this city where crystalline springs abound and multiply the fruit bursts, where the flowers are colored with beautiful nuances and everything is strange and never seen . He wore a rare layer that covered the cakes from his neck and was formed by black, red and yellow boxes. The mayor, the councilors and the neighbors when they passed the scare before what happened. Thank you my strength! This scared the rats that rushed to hide in their holes. Whole families of such bugs threw themselves in pursuit of the flutist, without repairing puddles or holes. Pricely on the street where their own sons and daughters live! Fortunately, the flutist did not seem to want to drown the children. So he continued shouting: I don't insult me vaguely as a tã º, even if he has a medical flute and some clothes like those who have lights! -S will regret it! -And still threatening, Handle Pácaro? They were immobile as tarugos, not knowing how to do what they were seeing. Why? What am I going to consent to being treated worse than a cook? What to do? Numerous fragmenty ran by beating the ground, small clogs repressed on lasas, many little hands palmotean and the bustle was increasing. And as I think, what is well dead does not return to life. Running without stopping, he went to carry the sad new one of what happened to his native País, Ratilandia. But that of the thousand florines, as you can appear, we have it joke. As they listened to him, the mayor and the councilors realized that around his neck he wore a red with yellow stripes, from which a flute was hanging. A long hour they were sitting in the hall of the city hall, running in the way they could attack the rats. And the bees don't have stings, so there's no fear that they'd hurt us by snatching their honey. I am able, through a secret charm that I possess, to draw to my person all beings living under the sun. Shortly afterwards, the flutist descended on the main street of Hamelin. They went up to the cribs to bite the children there asleep and even stole whole cheeses from the pantry and then ate them without leaving a miguita. Finally, the mayor stood up to exclaim: -What I would do for a good mouse! The echo of the last word remains extinct, when all gathered heard something unexpected. As they reproached him not to be happy for having noticed the fate of his companions, he replied: "Contento? Three notes as sweet, as melodious, as never a musician, nor the most skilled, had managed to make a sound. The ediles did not respond, but the gloom continued to hear. "For having drowned the rats," the fluteist replied. And then the whole mouse army was dancing without being able to hold back. The mayor muzzled astonishment and the councilors too. - You can never cross that intricate summit! But one day the city was attacked by a terrible plague: Hamelin was full of rats! There were so many times that they dared to challenge the dogs, they persecuted the cats their enemies of all life. Moreover, they are unable to take a single step or to launch the least shout that would prevent this adventure of children. Do you think I'm going to tolerate your threats? It's only one of the kids left out. I don't like to argue. And its inhabitants were proud to live in such a peaceful and picturesque place. His landscape wasand its beauty exalted by the shores of a wide and deep river that went up there. - But what do you think? When I realized that this was happening to me, I saw that the others had disappeared down the hill letting me feel alone against my desire. They also observed that the fingers of the strange visitor were disturbing, as they felt impatience for reaching and taunting the instrument hanging over their rare garments. As soon as the first notes of that flute arrived in my ears, I could not resist the desire to follow his music. They stumbled and jumped, shining again after the wonderful musician, to whom they accompanied with their voice and their laughter. - Down with the mayor! - That man is a skin! And the flutist kept on constantly attacking as he walked down the street. - Look at the rat plague's way of librarians! Or they find the remedy of ending this situation or we'll drag them down the streets! That's how God is! When he heard stories of threats, the mayor and the councilors were dismayed and trembling with fear.
